Parental Consent and Release

We are the parents and/or legal guardians of _____ ("Participant"). We hereby consent to Participant's participation in theatre arts classes offered by Theatre 360 Performing Arts, Inc., dba Theatre 360 School ("Theatre 360 School"). In doing so, we acknowledge that we have read and agree to the following conditions for enrollment.

1. Attendance: Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes on time and ready to work. If you are going to be late or absent, please email (info@theatre360.org) or call 626-577-5922. Also please let the office know of any planned absences in advance. We understand that an absence may be necessary, but a missed class may hold up class progress. It is the student's and/or parent's responsibility to obtain any information and material covered during the missed class. Missed classes due to absences are non-refundable. _____ Initial here

2. Cell Phones: We agree that cell phones can be disruptive and that taking or making calls, texting or using the internet during class is inappropriate. Cell phones are only allowed as your device to log-on to Zoom, recording devices, to take notes, or to mark calendars. Teaching Artists have the authority to confiscate cell phones being used inappropriately (when in-person). Cell phones will be returned at the end of class. We understand that all communications need to go through the office 626-577-5922. _____ Initial here

3. Dress Code: It is understood that loose clothing that allows for movement is best and that the students should feel comfortable to move freely without reservation. If skirts or dresses are worn, shorts must be worn underneath. For safety reasons, no sandals, flip-flops or crocs are allowed. For dance classes, jazz shoes or ballet slippers are suggested. Long hair must be pulled back. _____ Initial here

4. Visitors/Class Observation: For in-person classes, it is understood that Theatre 360 maintains a closed class policy. We feel that the Theatre 360 class is a uniquely special time for the kids and their Teaching Artists to share together on their own. Closed class time allows participants to focus without interruption making the class environment conducive to a highly creative, educational, and cooperative experience. Parents are invited to watch a demonstration the final day, and email will be sent to notify you of what time.

For virtual classes, we understand parental assistance may be needed or even necessary. _____ Initial here

5. Refunds: All requests for refunds or credits must be submitted in writing and emailed to info@theatre360org. If you decide before classes begin to cancel, you can either receive a refund minus a $25 processing fee or a credit. If you decide after attending the first day of class that you do not want to continue, let us know before the second class and we will refund your tuition payment minus a $50 registration/processing fee and cost of the first class. After the second day of class, we will not make any tuition or enrollment adjustments. Please allow 30 days processing time for refunds. If you request a credit, credits are good for up to one year from the start date of the class. Once a credit is selected, it cannot be transferred to a refund at any time for any reason. Credit given will be minus classes attended. Credits cannot be used for anything other than a class, including but not limited to:

production fees, private lessons, New York trip fees, tickets or workshops. Credits are non-transferable to anyone else including siblings/other family members. Theatre 360 is not responsible for insuring credits are used prior to expiration. We do not prorate, refund, or credit for missed classes due to illness, vacations, or personal scheduling conflicts. Please note: NO REFUNDS OR CREDITS if you auditioned for a production and did not accept your role, get cast, or choose to drop out of the production prior to the performance. _____ Initial here

6. Medication: It is understood that students bringing any type of non-prescription medication must first submit a note to the staff by a parent indicating the frequency that the medication should be taken. We agree that once the student has submitted the note, the student may be allowed to carry the non-prescription medication on their person while at Theatre 360 and is responsible for taking the proper dosages at the proper time. For prescription medication, we agree to contact the office prior to our child attending class to discuss the best course of action for our child and the theatre. We agree that students must be ultimately responsible for knowing when and how much medication to take and that Theatre 360 is not responsible for administering proper dosages at proper times to students (the same is applicable to asthma inhalers). _____ Initial here

7. Conduct: It is understood that Theatre 360 and its employees and volunteers do not discriminate based on gender, race, creed, ethnicity or religion. We agree that the students must treat one another with the highest respect. We agree that INAPPROPRIATE BEHAVIOR AND/OR PROFANITY WILL NOT BE TOLERATED AND THAT STUDENTS WILL BE DISMISSED FROM THE THEATRE if behavior becomes an issue. It is understood that if a student violates Theatre 360 policy, the parent will be contacted in a timely fashion and steps will be taken to correct the matter. We agree that if the child's behavior does not improve, Theatre 360 will dismiss the student and that in all cases, Theatre 360 has final say in any dismissal. It is understood that the following behaviors are criteria for immediate dismissal: disrespect toward faculty or staff member or anything that manifests contempt for Theatre 360 authority; roughhousing, fighting, disruptive and/or threatening behavior, bringing any weapon of any kind; threatening any student, teacher, staff member or parent; gang/crew involvement (dress, signs, language, etc.); being in possession or under the influence of any illegal drugs or alcohol; smoking in the theatre or within 50 feet of the theatre grounds; theft of any theatre or personal property; damage of any kind to theatre or personal property. We agree to speak to our children and remind them of the correct and expected way to behave while in school. It is understood that if at any time, a parent can no longer support Theatre 360 policies, they are encouraged to withdraw their child, and no refund or credit will be provided. It is understood and we agree that parents and guardians should not upbraid, insult, or abuse any member of the theatre administration, faculty, parent, student or staff on or off the theatre premises. _____ Initial here

8. Disclosure: It is understood that the parents/guardians of students enrolling in class are obligated to inform Theatre 360 at the time of the application, of any physical or behavioral problems the child has, which have required professional treatment, and it is understood that the school may decline to accept such child, or may revoke such acceptance, when it is apparent the child may not have a successful experience at the theatre or may cause other students to not have a successful experience at the theatre. _____ Initial here

9. Lost/Stolen/Damaged Property: We agree that Theatre 360 is not responsible for the loss or damage to a student's personal belongings for any reason. The theatre strongly recommends that students not bring items of value to classes or rehearsals. _____ Initial here

10. Release: I hereby grant Theatre 360 the absolute and irrevocable right and permission, with respect to the photographs, images, or video footage they have taken or may take of the Participant or in which the participant may be included with others:
